"Do you find that set of books you bought, interesting?" "Not very," confessed the man who tries to improve himself. "Do you regret your bargain?" "A little. I'd feel better about it if the man who comes around to collect the cash were as good at telling a funny story as the one who sold me the book."—Philadelphia Ledger.

NOTICEABLE RESEMBLANCE. "Isn't that a Bonaparte?" asked Mrs. Oldcastle, as they stopped for a moment to look at the new pictures. "Oh, my, no," replied her hostess; "it's a lion. CHILEAN TO HEAD PAN-AMERICAN SCIENTIFIC MEET IN CAPITAL

Delegations from Argentina to Pan-American Scientific Congress; Senior Don Eduardo Suarez.

Senior Don Eduardo Suarez, Chilean ambassador to the United States, will preside at the Second Pan-American Scientific Congress, to be held in Washington, December 27 to January 8. Ambassador Suarez is famous in his own country as a scientist as well as a statesman. The largest delegation from any South American country came from the Argentine Republic. The Argentine congress appropriated $60,000 to cover the expenses of this delegation during its stay in the United States. John Philip Sousa, the "march king," has composed a stirring piece of music which is to be named the "Pan-American March," and played for the first time in public at the sessions of the congress. He has been working on the composition at intervals during the past two years.
